

The Edward Groves Band

EDWARD GROVES: SONGWRITER & ENTERTAINER

Enhance your venue with a performance by The Edward Groves Band. An inspiring songwriter from Michigan, Edward Groves entertains audiences with his story-telling lyrics and mesmerizing, acoustical sounds by the amazing Keith Axtell on guitars, harmonic vocals by Abigail English and one of the few Chapman stick players, Chris Wood.

If you're in need of an entertainer who provides a relaxing, albeit conversation-provoking sound, The Edward Groves Band is the pinnacle performance. Audiences often leave feeling a connection with this talented songwriter and a compassion for one another.

PERFORMANCE DETAILS

- ◆ Music from Ed's Jolly Road CD and his upcoming One Hundred Kisses CD are performed: songs with Midwestern lyrics about a walk through a small town to a warning sign about protecting freedom...from a simple song with a stirring penny whistle solo to an all-out, shake-your-fist-at-the-heavens swinging blues.
- ◆ Performances include up to three sets of original material.
- ◆ The band is self-contained with a PA system and monitors.
- ◆ Edward plays Breedlove and Larrivee acoustic guitars and sings; Keith Axtell plays the Anderson electric and Taylor acoustic guitars; Abigail English provides harmonic vocals and percussion; Chris Wood plays the unique Chapman stick and guitar.
